

To Whom It May Concern:

Please maintain the present ban on the cross-ownership of news media. The First Amendment, and, as a result, our freedom, depend on the presentation of divergent views. If only one entity presents the news in any particular community, that freedom will necessarily be limited. Please don't place the economic benefit of a few over the First Amendment.

Peter Sills